

THE MINIDCKA CHURCHMAN

Vol. III No. 5 HUNT, IDAHO Sat. May 6, 1944

From a 1940 Czech Newspaper:---

"To render evil for good, that is to resemble a devil.

To render evil for evil, that is to resemble animals.

To render good for good, that is to be a man.

To render good for evil, that is to resemble God.

---From Fellowship, May, 1940---

THE COLLECT

O Almighty God, who alone canst order the unruly wills and affections of sinful men; Grant unto thy people, that they may love the thing which thou commandest, and desire that which thou dost promise; that so, among the sundry and manifold changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed, where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Thank you for your kindness and for remembering me in your prayers. It is a most wonderful feeling to know, that you are thinking of me back home...I am somewhere in Italy. It's a long way from home, but everything is fine. I am in good health and spirits. Somehow, one feels he's between God and a prayer overhere. My thoughts will be with you, as well as with my comrades.

Pvt. Samuel Hokari, Camp Shelby, Miss....Last Sunday evening I happened to be in Hattiesburg and had the very good fortune of hearing the polishes Mississippi Southern Vesper Choir at the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church. The choir is composed of all females & that in itself was quite a revelation. I couldn't imagine such harmony among such a large group of girls. Seriously speaking, they were very good and it is no wonder they are in such demand.

Sam Shoji, University of Cincinnati, Ohio...Easter was very nice here. I attended the Christ Episcopal Church here and was overjoyed by the service. In a beautiful service I received Communion. I thought of the Easter Service in camp while at Church and thought of the service held last year. The surroundings were entirely different but the feeling was the same. I hope someday all the people in camp may attend service in a church outside of camp/

Dr. Orval Etter, Eugene, Oregon.....More than that I wish that all of you might be successfully relocated again and once more be able to live normal lives. That objective calls for an endeavor, but at least I have tried to be.

Mrs. Mary Reifsnider, Pasadena 4, California...The Bishop enjoyed every minute in Hunt. He said it brought back many happy memories-----I wish I could have gone with him-as I do to Rivers and Manzanar.

The Bishop of Nassau, Rt. Rev. Spence Burton, SSJE, Addington House, Nassau-Bahamas...I hope to hear more about you this week for Father Beste is due to arrive here. After he has been in Nassau for a while I will probably send him to one of the out-island parishes that is without a priest. I know you are praying for us that God will send us enough priests to minister to all these dear people scattered over this vast archipelago.

Florence Anazawa, Wm. Smith College, Geneva, New York. It's raining today, for the first time in a week. We've had awfully nice spring weather lately, and they've finally put up the tennis nets in the courts that they had flooded during the winter for ice hockey. Marzipan, our Daschund simply revels in the warmth of the sunshine and lies all day in a patch of sunshine on the porch.

The Rev. Leslie C. Hill, Centralia, Wash...I have lately neglected Eddie and Willie (Pvts. Eddie Sato & Willie Tahara, Engineers, Camp Shelby) due solely to Easter duties etc. They should know, however by this time that my prayers and wishes for them are firm and continuous.

Miss Aiko Handa, 94 Pilgrim Road, West Havre, Boston, Mass.....After all the commotion I went through with plans to go to Boston--I've landed up here in Boston. It is really hard to believe that I'm actually here. We made an overnight stay in Chicago and two nights in New York City. We went to Radio City and I was thrilled to see such a huge and glamorous show house. All those huge skyscrapers seemed too good to be true. I just gazed at them with full curiosity and I don't doubt that I did look like a country girl in a huge metropolitan city.....Boston does prove to be an old & quaint city. The structure of the building cannot be compared to that of Seattle or even New York City. It is really old and ancient. As for these little side streets, heavens it's really old and talk of it being narrow. At times I wonder how I will ever become acquainted with these narrow streets which leads to nowhere. One would actually have to see these strange streets to realize how strange and old everything appears to be.
